

Present simple

To describe something that usually happens in the present.

verb

don't doesn't verb

Do Does

verb

EX: I go to school every day.

Past simple

To describe something that already happened. We must indicate when (yesterday, last week...)

verb (ed/2c)

didn't verb (infinitive)

Did

verb (infinitive)

EX: Yesterday I went to the cinema.

In ...
... ago
Yesterday
Last ...

Present continuous

To describe something that is happening at the moment to be verb ing

to be not verb ing

To be verb ing

EX: I am writing at the moment.

Past continuous

To describe something that was happening in some moment in the past

to be (past) verb ing

to be (past) not verb ing

to be (past)

verb ing

EX: Yesterday at 1pm I was having lunch.

Present perfect

To describe an action that began in the past and continues until the present.

have has verb(ed/3c)

have has not verb(ed/3c)

Have Has

verb(ed/3c)

EX: They have been married for 20 years.
They married in the past, but they are still married, so we need to use past perfect

Past perfect

A completed action which took place before another action in the past.

had verb(ed/3c)

had not verb(ed/3c)

Had

verb(ed/3c)

EX: When we got home, the children had already had dinner.
This happened before we got home, so we need to use past perfect

Yet Already Just Before For Recently Ever Since